We seek peace, but we do not compromise on our security: PM Modi in Kurukshetra (Gns). Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday said that India always seeks peace but never compromises on its security, adding that 'Operation Sindoor' is the biggest example of this resolve.

Addressing a gathering on the occasion of the 350th Shaheedi Diwas of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji in Haryana's Kurukshetra, Modi said, "We speak to the world about universal brotherhood, and we also protect our borders. We seek peace, but we do not compromise on our security."

Modi, who also released a special coin and commemorative stamp marking the 350th Shaheedi Diwas of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur, the revered ninth Sikh Guru, said, "New India neither fears nor stops, and it does not bend before terrorism."

"Operation Sindoor is the biggest example of this... Today's India is moving forward with full strength, with courage and clarity," he added.

The Prime Minister hailed Guru Sahib for his bravery during the Mughal era, recalling how he stood with Kashmiri Hindus when they were being forcibly converted to Islam.

"During the era of Mughal invaders, Kashmiri Hindus were being forcibly converted to Islam. Amid this crisis, a group of victims sought assistance from Guru Sahib. At that time, Sri Guru Sahib told those victims to clearly convey to Aurangzeb that if Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur accepts Islam, then we will all adopt Islam," Modi said.

The PM continued, "Standing on this very land of Kurukshetra, Lord Krishna declared the protection of truth and justice as the greatest religion... Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji also considered the protection of truth, justice, and faith as his religion."

He said that personalities like Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji are rare in history and that their lives, sacrifices and character are a great source of inspiration.

Modi further hailed the sacred land of Kurukshetra as an important centre of the Sikh tradition.

"See the good fortune of this land, almost all the Gurus of the Sikh tradition visited here during their holy journeys. When the ninth Guru, Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji, visited this holy land, he left an imprint of his intense penance and fearless courage here," he added.

Modi said, "Today is a wonderful confluence of India's heritage. This morning, I was in Ayodhya, the city of the Ramayana, and now I am here in Kurukshetra, the city of the Gita. We are all here paying homage to Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji on his 350th martyrdom day."

He said that personalities like Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji are rare in history and that their lives, sacrifices, and character are a great source of inspiration.

Sikh martyrs; they emphasized the state's commitment to preserving cultural heritage.

In their speeches, both leaders expressed their pride in having the chance to serve during the events emphasized Sikhism's message of equality and secularism, highlighting that Guru Granth Sahib Ji stands as a beacon of brotherhood, secularism, and socialism for all. Many people gathered to express gratitude and join in prayers for everyone's well-being.

The Chief Minister and the national convener highlighted the legacy of sacrifice and bravery that Punjabis, especially Sikhs, have inherited from great Sikh Gurus. These Gurus taught the community to fight against oppression, tyranny, and injustice. The state government, they stated, has a duty to preserve Punjab's rich cultural heritage for future generations.

Arvind Kejriwal and Bhagwant Singh Mann noted the global desire to commemorate Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji's 350th martyrdom anniversary on a grand scale, befitting his supreme sacrifice.

Unforgettable Spiritual Experience: Kejriwal On Drone Show On Guru Tegh Bahadur's Life

(Gns). Aam Aadmi Party Chief Arvind Kejriwal has praised the Punjab government for grandly conducting the 350th martyrdom anniversary of Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji.

He has highlighted the dedication shown over several months in organising the event. Kejriwal described the drone show at Sri Anandpur Sahib as "extremely divine and wonderful," providing him with an unforgettable spiritual experience.

Arvind Kejriwal, the Aam Aadmi Party Chief, praised the Punjab government for the grand 350th martyrdom anniversary of Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji, describing the drone show at Sri Anandpur Sahib as divine. During the event, Kejriwal proposed official recognition for Sri Amritsar Sahib, Sabo Ki Talwandi, and Sri Anandpur Sahib, which the Punjab government enacted a law for.

Upon the Punjab government's invitation, Kejriwal visited Sri Anandpur Sahib and paid his respects at historical gurdwaras, including Gurdwara Sis Ganj Sahib and Bhora Sahib. He considered himself fortunate for this opportunity. The special one-day assembly session called by the Punjab government for this celebration was also mentioned by him.

Significance of Spiritual

Experience He expressed his deep admiration for the drone show's portrayal of Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib's life, sacrifice, and martyrdom. Watching these representations in the sky filled him with profound emotions. This visual spectacle, according to Kejriwal, was a testament to the great dedication and respect for Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji's legacy.

During the assembly session, Kejriwal proposed that the holy cities of Sri Amritsar Sahib, Sabo Ki Talwandi, and Sri Anandpur Sahib be officially recognised. He confirmed that the Punjab government enacted a historic law to honour this request during the assembly session held at Sri Anandpur Sahib.

Drone Show Leaves Lasting Impression

No one can diminish the power of truth: UP CM

(Gns). Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath paid homage to Shri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji Maharaj, the ninth Guru of the Sikh tradition and a revered protector of India, on the occasion of his 350th martyrdom anniversary on Tuesday.

At a special Gurumati Samagam held at DAV College, Aishbagh here, on Tuesday, he bowed before Shri Guru Granth Sahib Ji and listened to the Shabad Kirtan.

The Chief Minister also remembered Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji Maharaj along with Bhai Mati Das Ji, Bhai Sati Das Ji, and Bhai Dayala Ji, extending heartfelt tribute on behalf of millions of citizens.

Addressing the gathering, Chief Minister Yogi

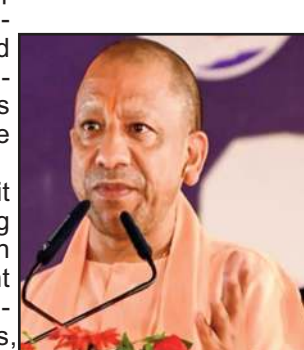

Adityanath said that truth can never be diminished. He added, "Empires rose and fell, generations came and went, yet unwavering faith has remained the guiding force."

He said that it is this enduring spiritual strength that has brought the nation to historic moments, including the construction and consecration of the Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Temple in Ayodhya and today's solemn remembrance.

During the ceremony, the Gurudwara Management Committee honored the Chief Minister with a Siropa, a Kirpan, and a portrait of Guru Sahib.

Speaking further, Chief

Minister Yogi Adityanath noted that the entire nation is emotionally connected to this day, which serves as an inspiration for all. He recalled that Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji Maharaj stood firm against injustice during a time when oppressive attempts were made to forcibly alter religious and cultural identities.

When persecution intensified, and people in distress sought protection, Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji stepped forward with courage and compassion. At just nine years of age, Guru Gobind Singh Ji, then Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji's young son, had also encouraged him to take this stand for righteousness and freedom of faith.

The Chief Minister reflected on the profound sacrifice made by Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji and those who stood alongside him with devotion and resilience. He emphasized that their steadfastness created an unparalleled legacy of courage, compassion, and unwavering commitment to dharma.

Remembering Guru Gobind Singh Ji Maharaj, he said that the world rarely witnesses an example of such sacrifice, where a son loses his father to martyrdom, and later his own four Sahibzadas give their lives for the protection of faith and humanity. Guru Gobind Singh Ji stands as a symbol of extraordinary bravery, leadership.

‘India is the greatest power in the world’: Penpa Tsering

(Gns). Central Tibetan Administration President Penpa Tsering on Tuesday said, “India is the most powerful nation in the world, and it just needs to recall its strength like Lord Hanuman.”

Addressing the students of S.R. Group of Institutions, Penpa Tsering emphasised that environment and security have become the most critical global concerns of the 21st century.

He highlighted that the growing environmental challenges in Lucknow and across Uttar Pradesh, including climate change, pollution, deforestation, and water scarcity, are directly affecting human life and national security.

Speaking in detail about the situation in Tibet and Indo-Tibetan relations, he stated, “The Tibetan script is inspired by India’s Devanagari, and this reflects our centuries-old bond.”

“Many people are unaware that Tibet has 46,000 glaciers. India has always been the guru and Tibet its disciple. Whatever Tibet is today, it is because of India,” he said, “There is no nation more powerful than India.”

He also highlighted that due to restrictions imposed by China, travel to and from Tibet remains heavily controlled.

He expressed his admiration for Lucknow’s rich Nawabi culture and its unique linguistic charm, adding that he wishes to learn the language.

Expressing gratitude for President Penpa Tsering’s presence, All India Coordinator for Bharat-Tibet Dialogue Dr. Sanjay Mishra, Vice Chairperson Sushmita Singh, Vice Chairman Piyush Singh Chauhan, along with several distinguished guests.

freedom is not only crucial for Tibetans but also vital for India’s long-term security.

He added that China continues to claim several Indian cities, which may pose challenges in the future.

He urged that, as in Japan, the people of Lucknow should also boycott Chinese products, as the money of 1.4 billion Indians could indirectly reach Pakistan through China and fuel terrorism.

The event was graced by S.R.G.I Chairman & MLC Pawan Singh Chauhan, All India Coordinator for Bharat-Tibet Dialogue Dr. Sanjay Mishra, Vice Chairperson Sushmita Singh, Vice Chairman Piyush Singh Chauhan, along with several distinguished guests.

Ather Energy Reports Strong Q2 FY26; Expands Market Share to 17.4% with Improved Margins

Lucknow, 25th November 2025: Ather Energy (ATHERENERG), India’s leading electric two-wheeler manufacturer, reported a strong Q2 FY26 performance with sharp growth in market share, volume, and financials. The growth during the quarter was driven by an expanding geographical footprint, a diversified product portfolio, and a strong technology foundation. The company ended the quarter with a market share of 17.4%, sales of 65,595 units, and an EBITDA margin improvement of ~1,100 bps year-on-year to (10%), underscoring solid operational execution and sustained growth momentum.

Key Financial Highlights
For the quarter ended September 2025, Ather Energy reported total income of ₹940.7 crore, up 57% year-on-year and 40% quarter-on-quarter, driven by sustained volume growth with stable pricing. Non-vehicle revenue, primarily from Ather’s ecosystem offerings such as software subscriptions, charging, accessories, spares, and service, contributed 12% of total income, reflecting the growing strength of its ecosystem-led business model.

Margins continued to improve through consistent operational execution and disciplined financial management. Adjusted Gross Margin stood at ₹210.6 crore in Q2 FY26, up 84% year-on-year, driven by value engineering, a rich product mix, and rising non-vehicle revenue contributions primarily led by software subscriptions. Adjusted Gross Margin improved to 22% in Q2 FY26, up ~300 bps year-on-year.

EBITDA performance improved meaningfully during the quarter, supported by continued cost discipline. Margins strengthened by over 1,100 bps year-on-year and 600 bps quarter-on-quarter to reach (10%). EBITDA losses narrowed to ₹90.7 crore, while loss after tax stood at ₹154.1 crore in Q2 FY26. This progress reflects Ather’s strengthening financial performance and its consistent path toward profitability as it scales rapidly.

Market Share
Highlights
Ather Energy strengthened its position in India’s electric two-wheeler market with a 17.4% market share in Q2 FY26. This marks an increase from 12.1% in Q2 FY25 and 14.3% in Q1 FY26. The company delivered 65,595 units, marking a 67% year-on-year increase from 39,305 units in Q2 FY25 and a 42% quarter-on-quarter increase from 46,078 units in Q1 FY26.

Ather maintained its leadership in South India with an increased market share of 25% in Q2 FY26, up from 19.1% year-on-year, reflecting strong brand preference and customer trust. Middle India emerged as the fastest-growing region, rising to 14.6% in Q2 FY26 from 8.8% year-on-year, driven by significant growth in states such as Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, and Maharashtra supported by expanding retail presence and robust consumer demand. The Rest of India also recorded strong growth, reaching 10% in Q2 FY26 from 6.1% year-on-year, with notable gains in Jammu & Kashmir, Punjab, and Rajasthan.

Operational Expansion

and Strategic Developments

Building on the strong retail momentum of previous quarters, Ather continued to scale its national footprint. The company added 173 new Experience Centres (ECs) in H1 and 78 new ECs during the quarter, expanding its retail presence to 524 ECs across India. This growth reflects a balanced expansion strategy across established metro markets and emerging tier-2 and tier-3 cities, enabled by Ather’s modular retail formats that improve cost efficiency and accelerate breakeven timelines.

Ecosystem initiatives also advanced meaningfully during the quarter. The company rolled out AtherStack 7.0, introducing software features that enhance the riding experience and connectivity. Adoption of AtherStack Pro remained strong, with 89% customers opting for it, further reinforcing Ather’s leadership in software-defined EVs. Ather also strengthened its charging infrastructure, with the Ather Grid network expanding to 4,322 fast-charging points.

Nayi Chetna 4.0: Govt rolls out nationwide drive for women’s safety, dignity and livelihoods (Gns). Union Minister of Rural Development and Agriculture and Farmers’ Welfare, Shivraj Singh Chouhan, launched Nayi Chetna 4.0, the National Campaign on Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment, at Sushma Swaraj Bhawan, here on Tuesday.

Nayi Chetna 4.0 aims to strengthen community action against gender-based violence and promote women’s safety, dignity, and economic empowerment across rural India. The campaign focuses on enabling safe mobility, recognising women as key economic contributors, and addressing unpaid care work through shared community responsibility.

It further seeks to enhance women’s access to assets, credit, skills, and markets, thereby expanding opportunities for entrepreneurship and livelihoods. By advocating gender-responsive policies and budgets, the campaign ensures women’s voices shape decision-making at all levels, reinforcing DAY-NRLM’s commitment to equality and inclusive rural development.

Addressing the gathering, Chouhan reaffirmed the resolve to ensure that no woman remains in poverty, lives with tears in her eyes, and attains dignity, confidence, and prosperity as a ‘Lakshpati Didi’. He highlighted that more than two crore SHG women have already become Lakshpati Didis. He stated that the Government is consistently working towards realising this vision by strengthening women’s empowerment and expanding opportunities for rural women across the country.
